OUT CHEAPLYSupreme Court Action Against
Fern Costs Him About Thirty-Five Dollars.

The actual court costs for trying to oust Mayor Fern from office and install Lane in his place were quite small, according to a settlement allowed yesterday by the supreme court, before which both the proceedings were recently held. The Democratic lawyers put in a bill of $26 in the case brought by Bright against Fern, and this was cut down to $18, and in the case of Lane versus Fern, a similar reduction was made, and the allowance placed at $17.

But that is a mere bagatelle, for the lawyer's fees have no part in the taxation of court costs. Whether they amounted to a few thousand dollars or a few hundred dollars, or their services were given gratis, is not stated. There was quite an array of legal talent on the Republican side of the contest, while Wade Warren Thayer and C. W. Ashford appear to have been the only Democratic attorneys. They won out.

Cluney Is Again Defendant.
A gruesome reminder of the tragic death of D. Barboza, the Portuguese head of a family whose life was snuffed out in an instant by Eddie Cluney, the well-known reckless chauffeur, was revived yesterday when return was made by a court officer in a suit filed by the widow, Virginia De Mello Barboza against Cluney wherein she asks to be awarded $10,000 for the loss of her husband. Through her attorney, E. C. Peters, she sets forth that on May 16, 1910, Cluney while operating an auto over and upon King street near the main entrance to the Kamehameha Schools, negligently and carelessly, knocked down her husband who was not at fault in any way and thereby sustained mortal injuries from which he died the same day, and by reason of his death she states she has been damaged to the extent of $10,000.

Trent Turns In Inventory.
The inventory of R. H. Trent, administrator of the estate of George Philipps was filed yesterday, showing cash in Bishop & Co.'s bank, $536.53; cash paid in by the Queen's Hospital, $71.85, a total of $608.38.

Alexander M. McBryde, P. Maurice McMahon and M. T. Simonton have been appointed by Judge Robinson appraisers of the estate of William Woolham, deceased.

The Lucas Charges.
Lydy Lucas, widow of the late Thomas R. Lucas, has filed a complaint against Charles Lucas and Lucas Bros., to quiet title to land along the Esplanade, and demanding $30,000 which she claims is due her for one hundred months' rent for this land which is used and utilized by Lucas Bros., contractors and builders.

She states that on June 16, 1902, she entered into an agreement made between her and Jas. H. Boyd, superintendent of public works for the following lots on the Esplanade: Lots 12, 13, 14, 22 and 23. She states that Charles Lucas became a tenant at will of hers and entered upon the lands and took possession, together with John Lucas and Thomas R. Lucas, and Charles undertook to pay a reasonable rental, but she states he has absolutely refused to pay any rental. Thos. Lucas died April 19, 1910, having previously, on December 31, 1909, made a certain deed of trust transferring all his right, title and interest in the property to his wife, Lydy Lucas. She states that Chas. Lucas claims to hold the lease, while Lydy Lucas claims to be a member of the firm.

Demand has been made in writing, she says, upon the firm of Lucas Brothers, to pay her rent at the rate of $300 per month, but they will not do so, and she also claims 100 months' rent from 1902, amounting to $30,000.

George S. Curry and Kinney, Ballou, Prosser and Anderson appear for the plaintiff.

WOMAN MISSIONARY
FIGHTS OLD SANTABeats Salvation Army Solicitor
Over the Head for "Fostering Old Myth."

SPOKANE, December 17.—"Sister" Flora M. Bilkiss, an eccentric mission worker, caused a sensation on River side avenue this morning by a picturesque attack upon a bewhiskered "Santa Claus" of the Salvation Army, who was soliciting alms for the poor on a street corner. Sister Bilkiss tore the wig and whiskers from his face, kicked over the kettle containing the evins and smote the astonished man in the face with the sign asking for contributions.

The woman was arrested. While being taken to jail in the patrol wagon she sang hymns at the top of her voice. Sister Bilkiss explained her attack by saying the Santa Claus myth should be exploded and that the Salvation Army had no right to solicit on the street while other begging is prohibited.

"I am not ashamed of my latest book," said the author. "Of course not," said the local critic. "I noticed its gilt edges, and the beautifully colored frontispiece."—Atlanta Constitution.

FIFTH CAVALRY
WILL PARADERevenue Cutter Thetis Men May
Be in Line on February
Twenty-Second.

It now seems almost certain that the Fifth Cavalry will take part in the Floral Parade. The story in The Advertiser about a week ago giving reasons why Lieutenant-Colonel Wheeler had written to the Floral Parade committee declining to allow his command to take part in the festivities of Washington's Birthday, created quite a stir in many circles. As was stated that very few persons, even those connected with the former parades, realized that the soldiers had a grievance concerning their treatment by the city, but the justice of the complaints was recognized by everyone when they had been pointed out.

Director Wall and the military committee expect to be able within the next few days to make a positive guarantee to Colonel Wheeler that the principal complaints against last year's parade will not occur again this year, in fact one of them has already been looked after. Chairman Willard E. Brown has obtained from E. I. Spalding permission to use the large vacant lot at the corner of Beretania avenue and Miller streets, owned by W. G. Irwin, as a camping place for the cavalry. This lot is only one block distant from the capital grounds and is most conveniently located for the purpose. It will effectually do away with the complaints of last year that the troops were compelled to camp in a muddy field so far from the city that they had no chance to enjoy the festivities after they had taken part in the parade.

Director Wall expects to be able to have the next big complaint provided for within the next few days. This refers to the poor policing of the line of march last year. It is expected that the street car company will voluntarily agree to regulate traffic in its downtown lines during the parade so as not to interfere with the line of march. Mr. Wall has, however, been assured that it will be possible to compel the cars to stop running even if the company refuses to stop them of its own volition. He is also arranging with Sheriff Jarrett for a system of policing which will be a guarantee that the parade will not be interfered with by automobiles or by crowds of sightseers, as has previously been the case.

Captain Cochrane of the United States Revenue Cutter Thetis has also volunteered to have his crew, numbering about one hundred men, take part in the parade. This will be the first time that any considerable number of sailors have had a part in a Floral Parade. It is possible, also, that the Thetis will prepare some kind of a float for the parade.

"Booker is awfully narrow, isn't he?" "Narrow isn't the name for it. Say, he asked me yesterday if I believed Santa Claus belonged to any church."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realized from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way. Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. A handbag may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the curative properties of pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood, and is effective in Anemia, Debility, Lung Troubles, Influenza, and all Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It is a scientific remedy and a food with a delicious taste and flavor. One bottle convinces. Sold by chemists.
